From Africa to Oklahoma and all points in between and beyond.
We are here.

Dedicated to my forefathers -- the freedmen, the freemen and the freeborn.

One of the STEVENSON's earliest known ancestors, Lanie Colbert, was of Indian and African descent. Our earliest ancestors traveled with the Chickasaw Indians (5 Civilized Tribes) from Mississippi to Indian Territory (present day Oklahoma) along the "trail of tears". Many of the early STEVENSON Family descendants settled on Wild Horse Creek near present day Hennepin, Oklahoma.

The STEVENSON Family history is tightly coupled to the COLBERT family and the COLBERT history is pivotal to the history of the Chickasaw Indians. The significance of the COLBERTs in Chickasaw History cannot be overestimated. Mixed-blood control of the Five Civilized Tribes by the early nineteenth century was fairly common, but only among the Chickasaw's did one family, the COLBERTs enjoy complete domination. The COLBERT dynasty, unflinching in its absolute reign over the Chickasaw people for seventy years, was one of the few to disintegrate voluntarily, ceasing only when family members chose to relinquish power to others.

(Major) James COLBERT (1768-1842) was the father of Lanie COLBERT. His father, James Logan COLBERT (1721-1784) hailed from Scotland or England.

The parents of Mobile STEVENSON are not known.

Lanie COLBERT and Mobile STEVENSON were married in Chulahoma, Mississippi (Marshall County). Lanie COLBERT and Mobile STEVENSON had 15 children: Elsie, Joe, Dick, Louisa, Gattis (Gaddis), Cornelius, Louis, Bankston, Dinah, Bill/Bob, Dudley, Elmira "Myra", Dave, Sarah and an infant who died in infancy.

This STEVENSON Family Website, www.OurSharedFamilyHistory.com, contains the history and genealogy of the STEVENSON Family.

The STEVENSON Family Tree contains over 3300 individuals.

Stevenson Major Groups

Most of the Stevenson's listed on the Chickasaw and Choctaw Freedmen Rolls are descendants from one of three (3) major Stevenson Groups: Mobile Stevenson, Steven Stevenson and Mack James Stevenson

I have not been able to determine the relationship between Mobile, Mack and Steven. They may be brothers but I have found no evidence to support this claim. However, my family oral history (per Adam "Joe" Stevenson) has it that there were two (related/unrelated???) branches of the STEVENSONs.

Each branch resided on one side or the other of Arbuckle Mountain and did not maintain contact due to a family "rift". There are some (living) family members (Henry Shannon et al) who had family on each side of the rift/mountain and visited on both sides of the mountain as a child. He knows that there was some family rift and that the families did not maintain contact; but he was not privy to the cause of the rift. Nevertheless, I believe that 3 major groups are related. Interestingly enough, these groups all decided to take the surname Stevenson.

Each major group has their own descendant report document. The following descendant report is for Mobile Stevenson and Lanie Colbert.

Mobile Stevenson and Lanie Colbert

Much is not known about Mobile STEVENSON. He was owned by Susan COLBERT nee JAMES, wife of James COLBERT. I suspect that he was born about 1800-1810. He died sometime before 1898 (before the "enrollment process") His parents may be Mary STEVENSON and Naho; however, there is no evidence to confirm this; however, it was passed on to us through our "oral history".

Lanie COLBERT was born in 1812. Lanie STEVENSON nee COLBERT was the daughter of (Major) James COLBERT and a woman who was the slave of (Major) James COLBERT. Lanie COLBERT was freed by her father early in her life. In 1814, when Laney was two years and nine months old, GUNN freed her (as a favor to her father) in writing and recorded the action with the Chickasaw Agency. At the time of the manumission, Laney since she was young continued living with her mother (who was still a slave of GUNN) until GUNN died in 1823. Therefore, all of Lanie's children were born free. (1847 Appellate Case).

The earliest mention of Mobile STEVENSON and Lanie COLBERT that I have been able to find is their baptism in the Monroe Church. Around the 1820's, Lanie COLBERT and Mobile STEVENSON were at the Monroe Mission (6 miles south of present day Pontotoc, Mississippi - Marshall County), under the directorship of Rev. Thomas C. Stuart. Lanie and Mobile applied for admission to communion of the church and were received into membership on March 31, 1827 and April 25, 1828 respectively.

Lanie was a fighter and continually asserted her rights to Indian Citizenship through her father (Major) James Colbert. During the enrollment process on 18 August 1893 Lanie testified "that on that occasion she was duly placed upon said record as a Chickasaw Indian by blood, that she is the daughter of James COLBERT."

On 29 August 1893, Mrs. Rhoda HOWELL testified that "she knew James COLBERT the father of Lany COLBERT and knew him to be a full blood Chickasaw Indian. The affidavit further testifies that she has known Lany COLBERT for 60 years and that she was all that time considered an Indian entitled to the right of an Indian".

Later, on 27 August 1896 Lanie was still asserting a claim for citizenship for herself and her children.

Lanie died sometime after 27 August 1896 and before final enrollment (September 1902).

Lanie's children (and descendants) then took up the fight for citizenship. In 1905, and then in 1907 they hired Attorney Albert Lee who filed a court case with the United States Supreme Court.

Lanie's children were also part of the court case filed by Bettie Ligon and 2000 other Freemen who were seeking to be recognized as citizens.

Lanie COLBERT and Mobile STEVENSON had 15 children: Elsie, Joe, Dick, Louisa, Gattis (Gaddis), Cornelius, Louis, Bankston, Dinah, Bill, Bob, Dudley, Elmira "Myra", Dave, Sarah and an infant who died in infancy.

STEVENSON/COLBERT Connection - Court Case

[The following is an excerpt from Congressional Records, Senate Report, 59th Congress, 2nd Session, Report 5013]

In the matter of the petition for the enrollment of Dick STEVENSON, et al., as citizens by blood of the Chickasaw Nation.

On February 12, 1906, there was filed with the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes by Albert J. LEE, attorney for the petitioners, a petition praying for the transfer of the names of the following persons from the roll of Chickasaw freedmen to the roll of citizens by blood of the Chickasaw Nation: [the original document lists 125 names]

The petition alleges that the principal petitioners, Dick STEVENSON, Joe STEVENSON, Dave STEVENSON, and Myra STEVENSON, are the children of Lanie STEVENSON, a recognized Chickasaw citizen of one-half Chickasaw blood, who was the daughter of James COLBERT, a recognized Chickasaw citizen, that all the other are grandchildren and great-grandchildren of the said Lanie STEVENSON, and are each and all enrolled as freedmen of the Chickasaw Nation; that petitioners were before the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes at Pauls Valley, Indian Territory, and made application for enrollment as citizens by blood of the Chickasaw Nation; that prior to said appearance to the said Commission they made written application to the Commission when sitting at Vinita, which application, to the best of the knowledge of the petitioners, have never been acted upon by the said Commission.

No answer to the petition has been filed by the attorneys for the Choctaw and Chickasaw nations within the fifteen days allowed for that purposed by the regulations adopted by the Commissioner January 2, 1906.

The following petitioners have been enrolled as Chickasaw freedmen, and their names appear on the final roll of Chickasaw freedmen, approved by the Secretary of the Interior as follows: [the original document lists 75 names along with each persons roll number, and another list of 14 names of persons who no record of any application was made. Further paragraphs in this document list the names of a couple of freedmen who enrolled as citizens and whose application was rejected. Additionally, further paragraphs list the names of each freedmen who applied, the date they applied for enrollment, any other persons applying with them, and any subsequent additions since their initial application (i.e. names of children born subsequent to initial application and date of birth)]

The following petitioners have been enrolled as Choctaw freedmen and their names appear on the roll of Choctaw freedmen approved by the Secretary of the Interior, as follows: [the original document lists 37 names along with each persons roll number]

It does not appear from the records of this office that at the time application was made for the enrollment of the petitioners above mentioned as Choctaw and Chickasaw freedmen or at any time subsequent thereto and prior to December 25, 1902, was any application ever made for the enrollment of any of the petitioners as citizens by blood of the Choctaw or Chickasaw nations.

It is not alleged in the petition, neither does it appear from the tribal records of the Choctaw and Chickasaw nations in the possession of this office, that any of the petitioners or Lanie Stevenson, the alleged mother of the principal petitioners was ever recognized by the tribal authorities of the Choctaw or Chickasaw nations as citizens by blood of the said tribes, nor have they ever been admitted to citizenship by any duly constituted court or citizenship committee of either of said nations or the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, or the United States Court, under the provisions of the act of Congress approved June 10, 1899 (29 Stats., 321), or the Choctaw and Chickasaw citizenship court.

The name of one James COLBERT appears on the 1878 Chickasaw annuity roll-seven in family.

The allegation in the petition that James COLBERT, the alleged grandfather of the principal petitioners, was a recognized Chickasaw citizen and the fact that the name of one James COLBERT appears on the 1878 Chickasaw annuity roll is considered immaterial, inasmuch as it is shown from the records of this office that the principal petitioners, Dick and Joe STEVENSON, were born about the year 1829, that the principal petitioner, Dave STEVENSON, was born about the year 1857, and that none of said petitioners or Lanie STEVENSON, the mother of the principal petitioners, have ever been recognized or enrolled as citizens by blood of the Chickasaw Nation by any duly constituted authority.

Order

I am of the opinion that the petition fails to state facts sufficient to warrant a hearing upon the alleged right of the petitioners to enrollment as citizens by blood of the Chickasaw Nation; that the absence of any tribal recognition whatsoever of any of the petitioners of Lanie STEVENSON, the mother of the principal petitioners, as citizens by blood is conclusive under the act of Congress approved May 31, 1900 (31 Stats., 221) as to my jurisdiction to now receive or consider any application for the enrollment of any of the petitioners as citizens by blood of the Chickasaw Nation; that the petition should be denied, and it is so ordered.

Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes.

STEVENSON/COLBERT Connection - Testimony

[The following is testimony that was given regarding Myra BRUNER nee Elmira (Myra) STEVENSONs application for enrollment as a freedmen of Chickasaw Nation. This testimony is part of Myra BRUNERs application jacket, Chickasaw Freedmen, Card 430, Roll #1755.]

COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES

Ardmore, Indian Territory, November 23rd, A.D., 1898

Myra BURNER Vs. Chickasaw Nation Chickasaw Freedman case.

H. F. MURRAY, being duly sworn by Commissioner A. S. McKennon, on his oath, testified as follows: I knew a colored woman named Lana, who was a free woman before the war in '49 or '50; she was set free by Jim Colbert in Mississippi, and afterwards came to the Territory. Her husband was named Mobile and was a slave of Susan Colbert. The children of this woman were born free. I am seventy-nine years old and have lived in the Choctaw and Chickasaw Nation forty years; am an intermarried citizen of the Chickasaw Nation.

WILLIAM L. BYRD, being duly sworn by Commissioner A. S. McKennon, on his oath, testified as follows: I am fifty-four years old and am a member of the Chickasaw Tribe of Indians. I knew a woman named Lana who was free before the war and was the wife of a colored man named Mobile, who belonged to Jim Colbert's mother. She had children as follows: Bankston, Louis, Cornelius, Dick and Gattis. These were all free before the war.

CHARLES COHEE, being duly sworn by Commissioner A. S. McKennon, on his oath, testified as follows: There was Dick, Gattis and Cornelius, was up here on the farm; know that Holmes Colbert followed them to Paris, Texas.

Q: (By Mr. McKennon) Did you understand that they were taken out to Texas by someone and sold?

A: Sold, yes sir, they were sold.

Q: Just gathered up in the country and sold?

A: Yes sir.

Q: And that Holmes Colbert claimed them and there was a trial of the rights of property and he recovered them and brought them back to the Territory?

A: Yes sir.

Q: Go on with your statement?

A: Then after he brought them back he put some of them up here on Caddo on his farm, that is to tend a farm for him. They stayed there until about '62 I think. After the war got up, the soldiers being there at Fort Arbuckle, they came down there and took them off and sold them again to the highest bidder. Just as soon as Holmes learned they were sold he demanded them and he took them all home, and they were freed right there in the yard. All but the old lady. They never did slave her but, of course, they had to take these others and slave them. My father was on Holmes' ranch, and him and one of the boys, Marks Hamilton, and they come and got him and carried him up there at the same time.

Q: How old were you then?

A: I was between sixteen and seventeen years old I reckon.

Q: Now these remained on the Colbert farm until they were freed you say?

A: Yes sir. Myra that you speak of was right there with Holmes, she was on his place, so was Dick, Marks and George. Marks was right there on the ranch and Ed Colbert went with them when they carried them up to the Fort and he bought Marks and took him back, and told my father that he belonged on the ranch just the same as he did before, and my father told him no, that they might come and get him again.

Q: And Holmes Colbert came down and got him?

A: Yes sir.

(By Mr. Peter Maytubby, Chickasaw Com'r.) I don't understand that thoroughly, about being sold to the highest bidder and Holmes Colbert buying them.

(Witness) Holmes didn't buy them. Ed Colbert bought Marks Hamilton. He was living up on Caddo.

Q: Was he a free born or a slave when he bought them?

A: Marks?

Q: Yes sir. You said as soon as he bought them and brought them home they were free. I understood you to say that?

A: I didn't say they was free, I said when Ed Colbert bought Marks he brought him back to Holmes Colbert's ranch where they got him from and told him to take him again and use him just as he had done on the ranch, and my father told him no, that they might come back and get him.

(By Mr. Maytubby) I understood him to say they were sold to the highest bidder.

(By Mr. McKennon) The soldiers took them and sold them to the highest bidder.

(Witness) They just came down and took them by force and carried them up there and put them up and auctioned them off to the highest bidder.

(By Mr. Maytubby) I want to understand that, about putting them up and selling them. The colored people were kinder turned loose in my neighborhood and they bought them in to hold them in places. They were sold just like any other property, only to hold for their labor.

(By Mr. McKennon) But they were held in bondage. They were having to render involuntary services.

(By Mr. Maytubby) They were in bondage but they were kinder reckless, just running over the country, and they would take them up just like you would take up a team, or something like that, and sold like a team or something like that.

Q: (By Mr. McKennon) You have stated it as you understand it?

A: They were put in bondage, there is no question about that.

WILLIAM L. BYRD, being recalled, testified as follows: The wives of these persons, the sons of Lana, above mentioned, belonged to Chickasaw Indians and were freed with the other people at the close of the war.

VERTON LOVE, being duly sworn by Commissioner A. S. McKennon, on his oath testified as follows: The children of Lana, I understand were taken up and sold as freed people and that Holmes Colbert bought them and sent them up on the farm where Charles Cohee's father was living.

MRS. SALLIE L. CAMPBELL, being duly sworn by Commissioner A. S. McKennon, on her oath, testified as follows: I am a half sister to Holmes Colbert. These colored people were freed by the grand father of my brother Holmes Colbert and for that reason my brother was always trying to protect them, and I know that when I was a child they were put on the block and sold in the Chickasaw Nation and my brother Holmes Colbert bought them. He didn't, therefore, hold them as slaves, sometimes they were about him and at other times they were off. He finally put them on a ranch with Charley Cohee on Caddo Creek, where they remained until the close of the war. I was born in '52 and while a little girl I remember the one sale to which I have referred.

MRS. MARY RENNIE, being duly sworn by Commissioner A. S. McKennon, on her other testified as follows: I understand the facts to be just as stated by my sister, Mrs. Campbell.

MRS. LOUSIA PATTERSON, being duly sworn by Commissioner A. S. McKennon, on her other testified as follows: I am a sister to Holmes Colbert and during the war I was living at Arbuckle with Joseph Colbert, my father-in-law. Two of Lana's children, Louisa and Cornelius, were taken up and sold and Mr. Moncrief bought Louisa and she afterwards run away from him and went down on Red River to my brother's. I don't remember who bought the other one, he died on my place before the close of the war. Some of these people stayed there on the place with my brother, others did not all the while. I don't remember whether he held them as slaves or not, but I know that he was always protecting them.

MRS. MARY RENNIE, being recalled, says: I know that my brother Holmes Colbert went to Texas before the war and brought these negroes back with him. I know that they were free, and his grand father had requested that they remain free, and when I asked my mother why he went to Texas and brought them back she told me that he was just carrying out his grand father's request. He let them stay at his home and one of the women helped my mother a great deal, but when she wanted to she went away from home and returned when they wanted to."

[Marks and George, mentioned above, were the children of Lousia, daughter of Lana (Lanie) and Mobile. All of the people testifying, were either white or mixed blood, except for Charles COHEE, who was black]
